

Additional Information for Lonely Planet

Jody (M 30-40): The reclusive owner of Jody's Maps, a realistic and rational (but not without a playful side) man who believes in an ordered and known world- but fears outside elements that can shake the order of things.

Carl (M 30-40): Jody's friend and everyday visitor- perhaps Jody's only link to the outside world. Puckish and whimsical, Carl chooses to deal with the world around him in a series of games and veiled references. Kind hearted but mischievous, but grounded when needed.
